TALK OF THE TOWN

Ladies' rubbers at Abbott's.
New coats by express at Vaughan's.
$7.50 voile skirt for $4.98 at The Vaughan Store.
F. C. Bancroft went to Barton to-day on a business trip.
Get your fur set at Perry's while the assortment is good.
D. A. Perry was in West Topsham to-day on a business visit.
Alex. Milne went to Burlington last night for a visit with friends.
Daniel T. Stanley of Washington was in the city to-day on business.
Step in at the Diversal bowling alley to-night and have a game or two.
Good, old-fashioned, home-made eatables are served at the Eagle Cafe.
A. W. Nield left this noon for Lakeport, N. H., for a visit with friends.
Five first-rate barbers to attend you at Myers' sanitary barber shop to-night.
Hands a little cold? Go to the Frank McWhorter Co. for gloves and mittens.
Try Lander's 5 cent Havana Leaf and Spotted Jacket cigars, 92 No. Main St.
Mrs. Robert Shepard went to Fitzwilliams, N. H., to-day for a visit with relatives.
Mrs. Lloyd Derick and son, Arnold, of Northfield are visiting friends and relatives in town for a week.
Mrs. O. H. Hale went to West Lebanon, N. H., to-day for a visit at the home of her brother, L. A. Estabrook.
Walter Perkins of East Brookfield has sold his farm to F. H. Rogers of this city. In the deal, Mr. Perkins takes the B. F. Davis residence in East Barre, owned by Mr. Rogers. The transaction involves $7,000.
A brand new drama coming for to-night at the popular Bijou. It will be worth the admission fee. Carmin sings "In Golden Long Ago," about as well as it could be sung. One remembers it hours after hearing it. The comedy picture is capital.
Notice.—The parties who were seen to pick up a lady's shopping-bag, containing a large sum of money in one roll, some change, a check and a pair of glasses, are requested to bring, or send, same to Times office at once, in order to avoid complications.
Five mighty fine pictures are to be seen to-night at the Dreamland theatre. Not one of them is second-class. Several won the unstinted applause of the large audience last night. The show there will undoubtedly please the regular Saturday night crowds.
Mr. and Mrs. James F. Mitchell are called upon to mourn the loss of the second child within a month. The only daughter, Mabel Alberta, aged 11 months and a day, died this morning at 10:30 of lung trouble after an attack of the measles. The funeral will be held from the house at 4 Cleveland avenue Monday at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. E. O. Thayer officiating.

Farrington, Portland, Me.; George Brown, Cohasset; Mrs. Annie Drew, New York; Edward Andrews, Hanover, N. H.; George H. Wilson, Trenton, N. J.; Richard Vander, Boston; J. A. Wallace, Bennington.
Among the arrivals at the City hotel yesterday and today were F. J. Robbins, Boston; W. I. Geisenger, Long Island City, L. I.; D. A. Ingalls, Boston; H. P. Baker, Boston; C. J. Harris, Abington, Ill.; C. S. Cauley, Chicago; J. B. Wells, Randolph; C. E. Burriack, Boston; E. Ross Davis, Boston; E. Anders, Bethel; S. C. Palmer, Boston; I. R. Miller, Westminster; F. W. Fowle, Boston; E. H. Kennedy, Chelsea.
Picking Them Out.
In the wee sun hours, a party of men left their club, where they had drunk unwisely. They proceeded until they came to a semi-detached villa, where they stopped, one of them advancing and knocking at the door. A woman put her head out of an upper window.
"What do you want?" she demanded.
"Is this the residence of Miss Smith?" inquired the man.
"Yes. What do you want?"
"Dear Miss Smith! Good Mornin' Smith! Will you—hoo—come down an' pick out Mr. Smith? The rest of us want to go home!"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

RANDOLPH

The Only Way.
The shades of night were falling fast (As has been mentioned in the past).
When through an Alpine village blew A climber with a retinue.
He did not bear through snow and ice A banner with a strange device,
Nor did he roar "Excelsior!" (As has been mentioned heretofore),
But tended strictly to his job,
Which was to gain the mountain's nob.
Behind him on the weary jog
There toiled a faithful blond stenog;
Likewise there puffed a not'ry pub,
Provided by the Alpine club,
Who saw the climber did not cheat
And swore him every thousand feet.
Roped to a yodeling Alpine guide,
The trio scaled the mountainside.
At dawn the climber topped the crag
And waved the climber's union flag;
Dictated to the blond stenog,
Made affidavit, "Steady me, Bob!"
That he had gained the mountain's nob;
And Bill, the guide, to make things sure,
Was witness to his signature.
"That ought to hold the 'Show me' bunch,"
The climber murmured. "Now for lunch!"
—Chicago Tribune.

How Much

Could You Save by Selecting Your Food More Carefully

About one-half of the average family income is spent for eatables. Every time you have to throw away food because you cannot eat it or do not like it, you are throwing away money. People who buy "our kind" of Groceries don't need to do this.

Everything we sell comes to you good and fresh and is guaranteed to be pure and wholesome; also, the price is right. Try us and see.
